New Richmond Dec 22 /52

My dear Friend

On the 19th of Nov I wrote you on behalf of the Board of Managers of the Ladies Antislavery Circle of Cin^t inviting you attend a Convention to be held in Cin^t in April next - The Board to pay the expences of the trip - In that letter I wrote at some length, giving my own views as to the state of Antislavery matters here &c - As I trust that letter reached you I will not now repeat what I then said -

Not having received any reply from you or Mr Parker to whom I wrote at the same time, I begin to fear that my letter, or perhaps your answers may have miscarried -

Will you do me the favor to see Mr Parker & ascertain if he got my letter, & ask him to oblige me with a reply, & in the affirmative if possible -

I wish to know the address of Lucy Stone, Lizzie Holly, & Charles L. Remond - I dare say you can give them to me when you write, I hoping soon to hear from you I remain

Very Truly Yours
C. Donaldson
